

This & That!

First Mennonite Tuition Fund. This is your opportunity to support our students attending a Mennonite college: Chris Riesen, John Regier, Karen Jantzen, Katie Jantzen, and Justin Kyser.

Mennonite colleges will match the first $1000 dollar for dollar of tuition costs. Beyond that amount, US Mennonite colleges will match at a 1:4 ratio. (The college will give $1 of aide for every $4 provided by the church up to the full tuition.)

This is a great plan for the college and the students. The Tuition Fund Committee invites you to make a pledge. Pledge forms and the first semester's check are due to our church treasurer, Mike Goossen, TODAY. Please be generous in supporting our students. Committee members, 2010: Zella Penner, Sue Gerber and Barb Thimm.

From the Building Committee. The freezer in the old refrigerator in the kitchen has gone out. If you have a fridge that you would like to donate to the church, please contact a committee member: Jim Ensz, Doug Casey, and Marv Goossen.

Applications are now being accepted for the position of administrative assistant. This position requires a minimum of 25 hours per week. Please contact John Penner for a job description and application

A benefit is planned for Beatrice Police Dept. Sgt. Tony Lenner for July 18 at the VFW in Beatrice. The event will include a pancake feed from 9-11 with a silent auction all day. Later on in the day there will be loose meat sandwich meal from 5-8pm followed by karaoke for teens. Matching funds will be provided by Thrivent Financial. All money raised will help pay for medical expenses associated with Tony's ongoing battle with cancer.

Wednesday, July 14 is Mary's last day as our Church's administrative assistant. We thank her for her work here at First Mennonite and wish her well in the future. Church Board
